

SAMPLE LIVESTOCK PROJECT INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

First Year

1. What did you feed your animal?
2. How much did you feed your animal? How many times a day?
3. What is your breed of animal?
4. Where did that breed originate from?
5. Why did you choose that animal?
6. Who feeds and takes care of your animal?
7. Who prepared and how did they prepare your animal for fair?
8. What did you learn from your project this year?

This is the time for you to let the judge know what you learned from this project. If you don't tell them what you have learned, they won't know. BE PROUD OF YOUR PROJECT AND LET THE JUDGE KNOW YOU ARE.

Second Year

1. What did you feed your animal?
2. How much did you feed your animal? How many times a day?
3. What is your breed of animal?
4. Where did that breed originate from?
5. Why did you choose that animal?
6. Who feeds and takes care of your animal?
7. Who prepared and how did they prepare your animal for fair?
8. What did you learn from your project this year?
9. Why should your animal have fresh water every day?
10. What is the recent market price of animals? Should know the current prices.
11. Identify the basic parts of your animal. Loin – twist – pastern – poll – shoulder etc.
12. Which vaccinations and basic veterinarian care were given to your animal? What the animal has been vaccinated with – worming schedule.
13. What was your target weight for fair and why? Should know the target weight of animal – what it should weigh to be finished.
14. Why did you choose the feed you are feeding your animal?
15. What is the percentage of crude protein and percentage of crude fat in the feed you are feeding your animal?
16. What did you learn from your project this year?

This is the time for you to let the judge know what you learned from this project. If you don't tell them what you have learned, they won't know. BE PROUD OF YOUR PROJECT AND LET THE JUDGE KNOW YOU ARE.

Third Year

1. What did you feed your animal?
2. How much did you feed your animal? How many times a day?
3. What is your breed of animal?
4. Where did that breed originate from?
5. Why did you choose that animal?
6. Who feeds and takes care of your animal?
7. Who prepared and how did they prepare your animal for fair?
8. What did you learn from your project this year?
9. Why should your animal have fresh water every day?
10. What is the recent market price of animals? Should know the current prices.
11. Identify the basic parts of your animal. Loin – twist – pastern – poll – shoulder etc.
12. Which vaccinations and basic veterinarian care were given to your animal? What the animal has been vaccinated with – worming schedule.
13. What was your target weight for fair and why? Should know the target weight of animal – what it should weigh to be finished.
14. Why did you choose the feed you are feeding your animal?
15. What is the percentage of crude protein and percentage of crude fat in the feed you are feeding your animal?
16. Describe the way you selected the animal you are taking as a project.
17. Name four things your animal gets fed.
18. Name three other breeds.
19. What are parasites and how do you control them?
20. How did you trim the hooves of your animal?
21. What is in your feed that gives the animal protein?
22. Did you have to give any injections to your animal prior to fair? If so, what was it and what type of injection?
23. What did you learn from your project this year?
 - a. This is the time for you to let the judge know what you learned from this project. If you don't tell them what you have learned, they won't know. BE PROUD OF YOUR PROJECT AND LET THE JUDGE KNOW YOU ARE.

Fourth Year

1. What did you feed your animal?
2. How much did you feed your animal? How many times a day?
3. What is your breed of animal?
4. Where did that breed originate from?
5. Why did you choose that animal?
6. Who feeds and takes care of your animal?

7. Who prepared and how did they prepare your animal for fair?
8. What did you learn from your project this year?
9. Why should your animal have fresh water every day?
10. What is the recent market price of animals? Should know the current prices.
11. Identify the basic parts of your animal. Loin – twist – pastern – poll – shoulder etc.
12. Which vaccinations and basic veterinarian care were given to your animal? What the animal has been vaccinated with – worming schedule.
13. What was your target weight for fair and why? Should know the target weight of animal – what it should weigh to be finished.
14. Why did you choose the feed you are feeding your animal?
15. What is the percentage of crude protein and percentage of crude fat in the feed you are feeding your animal?
16. Describe the way you selected the animal you are taking as a project.
17. Name four things your animal gets fed.
18. Name three other breeds.
19. What are parasites and how do you control them?
20. How did you trim the hooves of your animal?
21. What is in your feed that gives the animal protein?
22. Did you have to give any injections to your animal prior to fair? If so, what was it and what type of injection?
23. What are some life skills you have learned in this project?
24. What is the cost of your feed per pound? What is the current price of hay? Who pays for your feed?
25. What is marbling?
26. Name four grades of meat.
27. How much back fat would you like your animal to have?
28. How do you safely handle your animal?
29. What was your animal's daily rate of gain?
30. Did your animal get any common diseases? If so, what was it and how did you get rid of it?
31. What did you learn from your project this year?

This is the time for you to let the judge know what you learned from this project. If you don't tell them what you have learned, they won't know. BE PROUD OF YOUR PROJECT AND LET THE JUDGE KNOW YOU ARE.

Fifth Year & Up

1. What did you feed your animal?
2. How much did you feed your animal? How many times a day?
3. What is your breed of animal?
4. Where did that breed originate from?

5. Why did you choose that animal?
6. Who feeds and takes care of your animal?
7. Who prepared and how did they prepare your animal for fair?
8. What did you learn from your project this year?
9. Why should your animal have fresh water every day?
10. What is the recent market price of animals? Should know the current prices.
11. Identify the basic parts of your animal. Loin – twist – pastern – poll – shoulder etc.
12. Which vaccinations and basic veterinarian care were given to your animal? What the animal has been vaccinated with – worming schedule.
13. What was your target weight for fair and why? Should know the target weight of animal – what it should weigh to be finished.
14. Why did you choose the feed you are feeding your animal?
15. What is the percentage of crude protein and percentage of crude fat in the feed you are feeding your animal?
16. Describe the way you selected the animal you are taking as a project.
17. Name four things your animal gets fed.
18. Name three other breeds.
19. What are parasites and how do you control them?
20. How did you trim the hooves of your animal?
21. What is in your feed that gives the animal protein?
22. Did you have to give any injections to your animal prior to fair? If so, what was it and what type of injection?
23. What are some life skills you have learned in this project?
24. What is the cost of your feed per pound? What is the current price of hay? Who pays for your feed?
25. What is marbling?
26. Name four grades of meat.
27. How much back fat would you like your animal to have?
28. How do you safely handle your animal?
29. What was your animal's daily rate of gain?
30. Did your animal get any common diseases? If so, what was it and how did you get rid of it?
31. What did you learn from your project this year?

This is the time for you to let the judge know what you learned from this project. If you don't tell them what you have learned, they won't know. BE PROUD OF YOUR PROJECT AND LET THE JUDGE KNOW YOU ARE.